INVITED GUEST SOCIETY

We are pleased to announce that The Society of Neurological Surgeons of America will be joining the meeting as our invited guests and contributing to the programme.

PROGRAMME

Lifelong Learning Session on Wednesday morning will be on the topic of 'Craniocervical junction' including chiari malformation, spinal trauma, and rheumatoid spine.

The Main programme will cover all aspects of neurosurgery. We have a great line up of esteemed UK and international speakers, free paper sessions, e-posters, breakfast seminars and a Hot Topic Session. All designed to create a unique and enjoyable educational experience.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Abstracts are welcomed on all neurological related topics from the neurosurgical community, UK and International. Submission is via the Belfast 2025 Conference webpage on the SBNS website.

Lines close 2nd December 2024 at 5pm.

EXHIBITION

There will be an extensive exhibition running throughout the meeting. A Sponsorship Prospectus is available for downloading on the conference page.

SOCIAL EVENTS

WEDNESDAY, 12 MARCH

The Welcome Reception will be at the Ulster Museum and is an excellent opportunity to network, socialise with colleagues whilst finding out something about the history of Belfast.

THURSDAY, 13 MARCH

The Gala Dinner will be held in the Titanic Suite of the Titanic Belfast Museum.

Our guests will be transported back in time to the elegant dining room of the iconic liner with its beautiful decor, fine crockery, gourmet food and fine wines. It will be a night to remember!

Dress code - Black Tie/National Dress.

Tickets can be purchased when registering – book early to avoid disappointment.

REGISTRATION

We offer reduced rates for SBNS Members, LMIC delegates, Allied Health Workers, and Medical Students.

Invited guest society members can register at the SBNS International Members rate.

Early bird rate available until 5 March 2025.
